Headline:
A return to less cold but unsettled weather this week.

Today:
A frosty start with icy stretches, then a mainly dry day, but cold and often sunny. An isolated wintry shower is possible over the Derbyshire hills where it will be breezy at times, lighter winds further east. Maximum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Tonight:
Long clear spells tonight, however, cloud will increase after midnight over the Derbyshire hills but staying mostly dry. A sharp frost is likely everywhere with icy stretches over untreated surfaces. Minimum temperature -4 deg C (25 deg F).

Tuesday:
It will be a frosty, dry, bright start on Tuesday. Turning cloudy through the morning with rain during the afternoon turning heavy at times. Maximum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Less cold, unsettled with periods of rain, heavy in places overnight Wednesday into Thursday and again on Friday. Windy at times.
